

Tirkedu Houston!

Dance Month 2012 kicks off with Tirkedu Houston!, a fun-filled weekend of enthusiastic and energetic Israeli dancing at the Evelyn Rubenstein Jewish Community Center.

Elad Shtamer, young, energetic choreographer from Haifa, Israel who has been dancing since he was 5 years old and has been teaching for 10 years, started choreographing at age 15. He is a second generation teacher. Elad's circle dance "Ilan" by singer Yakov

Shwekey has become a huge hit around the world. In addition, Elad took first place for his couple dance Yesh be Mashu at the Karmiel Festival in 2011. The weekend will include an evening of schmoozing and dancing at a private home on Friday evening, two teaching sessions on Saturday for intermediate to advanced dancers with reviews at the end of each session, a Saturday night dance party and a review session of all dances on Sunday morning for those who attended one or both teaching sessions.
