

online program registration

Our new and improved online registration system makes it easier than ever to register for classes and programs. Now you can:

- Register for classes and programs
- Schedule appointments for personal training, private lessons, massage and tennis courts
- Check your account balance and transaction history
- Update your contact information
- And more!

to begin your program search:

- 1 Visit www.erjcc-houston.org
- 2 Select an area of interest under the menu options "Activities By Age" or "Activities By Interest"
- 3 Click on Classes & Programs
- 4 Click "Register Online" next to the class or program

- 5 Select your class and "Add to Cart"

- 6 Continue Shopping or Checkout

- 7 You have now entered our Member Online Services portal and will need to Login (upper right). With online credentials you can become an ERJCC member, register for programs, schedule a personal training appointment, book a massage, reserve a tennis court, review and print your statements and more!

offline options available

If you are more comfortable flipping through the ERJCC's program guide and calling us to register, that option is still available. Click on "Register" and click "Download the printed program guide" to view the digitized version of our program guide. You are always welcome to come see us to learn more about programs and classes or take tour of our facilities and learn about new membership options. Whether online or in-person, become a part of the ERJCC, and find out why many consider us their home away from home.
