Auction Rules & Regulations

PLEASE READ CAREFULLY...

1. Bidders place bid labels on “Cover Me” boxes that correspond to a preset dollar amount. The price appearing next to your bid label is the price you are committing to pay for the item in case no higher bid is made.

2. The highest properly placed bid at closing time constitutes the winning bid. A J auction official will mark winning bids. In the event of a dispute, the auction official will determine the winning bid. Contested items may revert to live bidding at the auction table and will be aided by a J auction official.

3. Item details are listed on the bid sheet. Every effort has been made to accurately describe the items to be auctioned. It is the bidder’s responsibility to read all specifications and limitations carefully.

4. Airline and trip arrangements are subject to availability and may be subject to restrictions. Taxes, gratuities, and alcoholic beverages are not included unless specifically noted.

5. All auction items are offered on an “as is” basis and all sales are final. No refunds or exchanges can be made. Descriptions are for the sole purpose of identifying auction items. The J disclaims any express or implied guarantees or warranties. Lost or expired gift certificates cannot be reissued.

6. The J neither warrants nor represents and will in no way be responsible for the correctness of description, authenticity or authorship condition of items presented. No statement contained in the Auction Catalogue or made verbally at the sale or elsewhere will be deemed as a warranty, representation, or assumption of liability.

7. Payment may be made with cash, check, MasterCard, Visa, Discover or American Express. Payment in full the night of event is expected and all items are available to be taken home the evening of the event unless otherwise noted on the bid sheet. Any item purchased but not picked up within 60 days from date of auction will be placed back in the silent auction the following year or used for other fundraising efforts benefiting children at the J.
