

Chag Sameach

Sukkot is one of the most joyous festivals in Judaism, commemorating a successful harvest and the tradition of gathering with friends and families in a sukkah, a booth or hut in Hebrew.

Simchat Torah, meaning “Rejoicing in Torah,” marks the completion of the annual reading of the Torah and the immediate restart of a new one.

From all of us at the Evelyn Rubenstein JCC, we wish you Chag Sameach, a happy holiday!
